

EVA CUCCIA

INSTRUCTOR

Evangeline Cuccia is originally from Metairie, Louisiana, and has been dancing since she was 18 months old. She trained and competed with Conservatory of Dance Arts and New Orleans Ballet Theatre, building a strong foundation in both competitive and pre-professional dance.

At age 10, Eva began working in film and was featured in Marvel's Cloak & Dagger. In 2022, she earned Highest Scoring Soloist Across America with a self-choreographed solo and was featured in Showstopper Magazine representing Mississippi.

Eva attended the Joffrey West Los Angeles Summer Program on full scholarship in 2023 and 2025, where she trained with renowned artists and organizations including Abby Lee Miller, Cirque du Soleil, America's Got Talent artists, Sophia Lucia, Jan Ravnik, and Zoi Tatopoulos.

She has performed as a featured soloist in The Nutcracker with North Carolina Jazz Arts Charlotte and Giacobbe's Nutcracker, danced professionally with Lula Elzy New Orleans Dance Theatre, and trained as a pre-professional dancer with New Orleans Ballet Theatre for seven years.

In addition to dance, Eva has held the title of Miss St. Tammany Parish, won Best Headshot, and placed in the Top 15 at Miss Louisiana Teen USA. She has also been featured in projects including HBO, TLC's 90 Day Fiancé, and The Kelly Clarkson Show.

Eva continues to grow her social media presence, with over 17,000 followers on TikTok, videos reaching up to 3 million views, and sponsor opportunities connected to her platform. As a proud CDA alum, Eva is excited to return to the studio she graduated from and share her training, experience, and love for dance with the next generation of dancers.
