

ANDREI IVANKO

INSTRUCTOR

Andrei Ivanko brings decades of professional experience in gymnastics, acrobatics, juggling, circus arts, and tumbling instruction. Originally trained in Moscow, Russia, he attended Professional Gymnastics School and Moscow Circus School, where he specialized in acrobatics and juggling.

Throughout his career, Andrei performed internationally with renowned companies including the Russian State Circus, Bolshoi Circus, Cirque du Moscow, Ringling Brothers Circus, and other productions across Russia, Japan, France, and the United States. His background includes work as an acrobat, solo juggler, and leader of a five-person Russian juggling troupe.

Andrei also has extensive teaching experience, including serving as an instructor and coordinator for Cirque du Monde, a Cirque du Soleil summer program for children. He spent more than 20 years teaching tumbling and juggling at Spotlight Elite Dance Center in Pascagoula, Mississippi.

Andrei currently teaches tumbling at Conservatory of Dance Arts in Slidell, Louisiana, where he shares his professional training, discipline, and love for movement with dancers and athletes.
